

Proclamation for Goodwill Industries Day September 27, 2002

Whereas: Goodwill Industries is a non-profit organization which has served our community for 75 years.

Whereas: Goodwill Industries provides employment, training and career services to area citizens with disabilities and/or disadvantages.

Whereas: Goodwill Industries operates 8 stores, an internet auction site, recycling center, sub-contracts division and a workforce development and wheels to work program as the primary means to fund their operation.

Whereas: Goodwill Industries serves over 500 people annually in their employment programs and more than 247,000 people in area Goodwill stores and that they divert millions of pounds of material from entering area landfills with their recycling center.

I do hereby proclaim, that Friday, September 27th 2002 to be the official

Goodwill Industries Day

and call on all the citizens of the City of Terre Haute to join me in actively supporting Goodwill Industries and their worthwhile community based programs that serve so many people.

Signed this day, the 27th of September in the year of our Lord, 2002.

Signed _____

Judith A. Anderson, Mayor